

Message from FINCA International on the 2020 Form 990 Statement

FINCA International, the U.S. parent of the global FINCA network, is a tax-exempt charity that files Form 990 each year with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

As FINCA's mission is carried out through a business model of locally incorporated entities to meet foreign regulatory requirements, the revenues and expenses reported on FINCA International's Form 990 do not reflect the size or capacity of FINCA's global operations. Although FINCA maintains ownership and control of these separately incorporated entities, Form 990 does not allow consolidation of these entities. Form 990 only allows reporting on programs and services conducted directly by FINCA International. Conversely, Form 990 requires FINCA International to report on the salaries earned by staff of related entities. In Section VII of the attached Form 990, the staff listed in rows 24-35 all work for related entities. These individuals are not paid by FINCA International and their salaries are not included in FINCA International's annual budget. For these reasons, we encourage you to review our consolidated financial statements for a more complete picture of FINCA's programs and investments.

Under the equity method, FINCA Impact Finance's profits or losses recognized by FINCA International are calculated based on FINCA International's ownership percentage of FINCA Impact Finance shares. Further, when calculating its share of profits or losses, FINCA International is required to eliminate intra-entity profits and losses. As a result, FINCA International's Form 990 shows the losses incurred by FINCA Impact Finance due to the global economic slowdown brought as $13,725,249 in negative program service revenue leading to FINCA International reporting overall negative program service revenue of $1,329,624 on page 1, line 9 and a total revenue of $16,504,630.

Despite this loss, FINCA International continued to expand its impact in 2020. In the face of immense challenges posed by COVID-19, FINCA Impact Finance reported a total of over $624 million in loans disbursed and nearly 2.5 million individuals saving on a regular basis adding up to $440 million in voluntary deposits. Aligned with these microfinance activities, BrightLife financed affordable products utilizing PayGo technology so that individuals can access these life-enhancing products that they might not otherwise be able to afford. BrightLife provided 6,500 Ugandans with access to solar home systems, improving the lives of approximately 40,000 Ugandans. BrightLife also employed 45 full-time employees in Uganda and had a commission-based sales distribution network of approximately 150 agents. Finally, FINCA Ventures impacted several million lives through 15 partner companies delivering innovation solutions in agriculture, energy and health.
