

A Message from FINCA International on 2021 Form 990 Statement

FINCA International, the U.S. parent of the global FINCA network, is a tax-exempt charity that files Form 990 each year with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

As FINCA's mission is carried out through a business model of locally incorporated entities to meet foreign regulatory requirements, the revenues and expenses reported on FINCA's Form 990 do not reflect the size, capacity or growth of FINCA's global operations. Although FINCA maintains ownership and control of these separately incorporated entities, Form 990 does not allow consolidation of these entities. Form 990 only requires reporting on programs and services conducted directly by FINCA International. For this reason, FINCA International encourages you to review its consolidated financial statements for a complete picture of FINCA's programs and investments.

FINCA's 2021 Form 990 shows a loss in program service revenue, which warrants an explanation. To mitigate the unprecedented impact the global pandemic had on clients served by FINCA Impact Finance, their leadership continued to extend loan terms for clients and, in some instances, were required to provide forbearance to clients. These factors resulted in negative program service revenue of ($16,977,704) as FINCA International's share of the loss based on an equity method. FINCA International bears no cash flow impact of legal obligations for such loss.
